WEST LANAI

SOUTH LANAI

SOUTH LANAI

Seated Dinner 60 Guests

The South Lanai is the most popular area of the restaurant which overlooks the world famous Moir Gardens and is a short walk to Poipu Beach (voted the best beach in America). From the lanai you can enjoy the 70-year-old Lily Koi Ponds, magnificent, 70-year-old orchids, a fragrant Plumeria tree and historic Hawaii artifacts such as the grinding stone from the original Koloa Sugar Mill.

WEST LANAI

The West Lanai overlooks the historic Pa'u A Laka Moir Cactus Garden and the 60-year-old Lily Koi Ponds. The Pa'u A Laka derives its name from Laka, the ancient Hawaiian goddess of the hula. It was once one of the top ten cactus and succulent gardens in the world. Legend says a sacred hula training temple was located in the area. From your own entrance to the West Lanai, you can amble through the gardens via lava rock walkways. Some of the rock piles are exactly as the ancient Hawaiians left them.
